

John 10 v 14 'I am the good shepherd; I know my sheep and my sheep know me.'

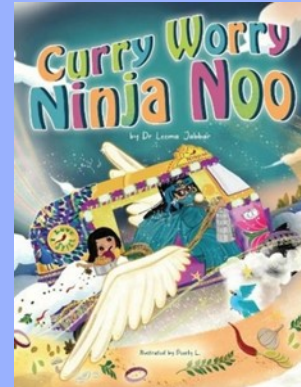

What an exciting half term we have had! Getting to know new classmates, taking part in our Harvest Services and even today KS2 have enjoyed their Egyptian Workshop day. We look forward to lots more great activities next half term starting with the author visit for Early Years and KS1 (see details below). I hope you have some rest and fun over the break. The staff team look forward to seeing you again on Tuesday 1st November. May God Bless you. Mrs Reas

KS1 & Early Years Author Visit & Discounted book offer

On 4th November Dr. Leema Jabbar will be visiting our KS1 & Early Years students to give an interactive reading of her book 'Curry Worry Ninja Noo'.

'Curry Worry Ninja Noo' is about a boy who worries about his hair smelling of curry after spending time at his Nanna Noo's house. That is until he embarks on a fiery and flavoursome adventure and discovers the real secret of his Nanna Noo's extraordinary culinary skills! This book encourages children to embrace traditions and realise that there's often more to people than meets the eye!

Curry Worry Ninja Noo is available to buy from Waterstones, RRP £7.99 but as a special deal for all of Pulford school, she is offering it for £6.99. She would love for you to order a book for your child on her website- leemajabbar.co.uk. Simply apply the discount code-'PULFORD' at the checkout. By stating your child's name on the order notes, she can ensure each copy is personally signed and presented to your children on Friday November 4th! This offer is open to all children in Pulford School, including Key Stage 2.

Travelling Crib

From Tuesday 1st November please see Mrs Bev Crockett from Pre-School at the top gate to sign up for the tradition of the Travelling Crib, organised in association with All Saints Church.
